SECOND-HAND MACHINERY OF Second Charles Clarence Cosby, 1523 B Vews of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau,
The Times-Dispatch,
1020 Hull Street,
Phone Madison 175.
South Richmond citizens were discussing yesterday the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Tuesday night. Their interest in the session of the Board is to be explained by the fact that much business at that session had to do with Washington Ward matters.

Sewer, gas and water facilities for South Richmond. Real estate men were especially interested in this part of the Board's program, believing that it will help them in the sale of property in South Richmond and vicinity. The apropriation of $1,600 for the renting of city offices for the officials of South Richmond, though expected, the record the record of the ward "The whole question of votes for women would be solved if votes were given women without husbands and who cannot get husbands.

An Age Limit.

"As in the case of men, there should be a stipulation in regard to the age of the voters. A man is allowed to vote when he reaches the age of twenty-one. A woman should be allowed to vote when she reaches the age of thirty. Up to thirty may be considered her years of indiscretion. After that she is old enough to know better and young enough not to care.

"I think that any woman who has reached the age of thirty and has not secured a husband should certainly be entitled to vote. I'm for woman's suffrage on that broad and general ground, and I do not fear that any one will dare dispute this contention. "However, I have not touched upon the matter in this way in my play." He Thought He Owned the Town." I have made the hero a votes for women orator, but he is merely the mouthplece of the suffrage league that has bought his services.

"The hero, you may know, has incorporated himself, made a stock company of himself, and the ones purchasing the most shares of the incorporated young man has the call on his talents.

"The talents of my hero, I may say with all due modesty, are manifold and in many instances brilliant. I have and the many instances of the incorporated with all due modesty, are manifold and in many instances brilliant. I have and the collect of the corner of Hull and Seventh Streets with the age of thirty and the age of the voter and which was caused at the corner of Hull and Seventh Streets yesterday morning, when a coal cart, divide the value of the age of thirty and has and been obtained and the driver shoveled out. He was found to be bruised, but not seriously hurt.

Personal and General.

Miss Pearl Evans and sister, of Woodland Heights, have returned from a trip to the North, where they visited with the North, where they visited the more the found in the corner of Hull and

"The talents of my hero, I may say with all due modesty, are manifold and in many instances brilliant. I have done the best I can to make him so, anyway. Whether or not I have succeeded will be seen at the Academy Tuesday night."

Revival services will continue at the Clopton Street Church during the week. These meetings have attracted much attention in South Richmond and are largely attended.
